

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying a Nature journal article. The browser's address bar shows the URL: <http://www.nature.com/nature/journal/v451/n7178/full/451499a.html>. The page title is "Towards falling emissions : Article : Nature". The Nature logo and "International weekly journal of science" are visible at the top. The article title is "Towards falling emissions" and the subtitle is "Although Europe's new energy plans may be too prescriptive on the means of achieving the goals, they offer the world an encouraging way forward." The article text begins with "The problem with action on climate change is that politically plausible programmes have a tendency to sound too small for the size of the challenge, where...". A blue box with the number "1" highlights the "Export citation" icon in the right-hand sidebar. A red dashed box also surrounds the "Export citation" icon. A "File Download" dialog box is open, showing the file name "citation.ris", type "RIS Formatted File, 8.72KB", and source "www.eric.ed.gov". A blue box with the number "2" highlights the "Save" button in the dialog box. The dialog box also contains a warning about internet files and buttons for "Open", "Save", and "Cancel".
